Work experience

---

Center for Studies in International Relations and Development (CSIRD)

January 2016 — April 2016

Intern

Centre for Studies in International Relations and Development (CSIRD) is a leading think tank in India to have exclusively focused on South, Southeast and East Asia. Under the mentorship of Dr. Arpita Basu Roy, I am writing an article on the 'Rise of ISIS and its Implication on World Security'.

Adhrit Foundation

January 2016 — April 2016

Senior Intern

Adhrit Foundation is an internationally recognized youth-led, not-for-profit and non-political organization working on Education, Entrepreneurship, Healthcare and Youth Empowerment in India

Adhrit Foundation

September 2015 — December 2015

Research Intern

As a research intern for Adhrit Foundation, I was required to submit an article every week on the issues related to education, youth empowerment etc that our country faces and which were published in the Foundation's blog.

AIESEC Kolkata

February 2012 — December 2012

Team Leader

I was as a part of AIESEC, the world's largest youth run organisation. As Team Leader of the student sector (OutGoing Exchange) of AIESEC, I had led a group of 30 peers to the realization of their true potential. This experience defined the very foundations of leadership in me. I believe the true test of mettle is when one is made to handle their own peers with headstrong views, ensuring that their leadership is enough to align their goals to yours.

Tribal Cultural Society

July 2012 — August 2012

Intern

TATA STEEL's Tribal Cultural Society, in Jamshedpur, has earned a name for itself; for the role played in empowering the indigenous group residing in the remote villages of Jharkhand while respecting their unique culture at the same time.

During my internship period, I was given the responsibility to work on the organisation's visibility on the social media. I even assisted in their new undertaking, Beads Project 2.0, which aim at providing a source of livelihood for the tribal women.
